

ELIZABETH FITZPATRICK

A firm acquisition brought Betty to TBC in 1990. Today, she is a wealth of knowledge to the firm, drawing from nearly three decades of experience in public accounting. Her service areas include accounting, auditing, and management advisory services for a client base which includes both wholesale and retail companies, automobile dealerships, and restaurants.

As a Quickbooks Certified ProAdvisor, Betty can help businesses customize QuickBooks for their unique needs and help them get the most out of the software. She also provides tax planning and compliance assistance to both her individual and corporate clients. In addition, Betty oversees roundtable discussions for entry level accountants and helps facilitate their growth both professionally and personally.

Just for Fun

- When the partner retreat agenda includes a day of golf, Betty is just as happy skipping the greens and hitting up the shopping outlets instead.
  - Morning meetings are always a treat with Betty, especially since she brings in pastries!
