

GRETCHEN GUENTHER

As the TBC tax department leader, Gretchen focuses the majority of her time on individual, partnership, and corporate taxation, including tax planning as well as tax compliance issues. Serving a vast array of industries, she spends a significant portion of her work researching and solving the tax needs of small businesses and individuals. She is licensed to practice accounting and law in New York State. Prior to rejoining the firm in 2017, she was an associate with the firm from 2000-2007. During her 10 year hiatus, she was a full-time accounting professor at the College of Saint Rose and climbed to the rank of interim dean of the Huether School of Business after serving as the Accounting Department Chair for several years.
