

JOSEPH WATROBA

As a Manager for TBC Joe works with a variety of clients to fulfill their accounting, auditing and tax needs. He works with different commercial entities including real estate, auto, construction, and professional services. Joe is passionate about his job and enjoys helping companies succeed. Prior to TBC Joe worked in the tax department of a regional accounting firm. He is a member of the firm's auto committee and employee engagement committee.

Joe is very involved in the community. He is the President and co-founder of the not-for profit Play it Foreward 518. The funds raised by Play It Foreward 518 support local organizations such as Make-A-Wish NENY and The Melodies Center for Childhood Cancer at Albany Medical Center. Joe has received the "Fighting Spirit" award from the American Cancer Society and the 2018 Standard award from alma mater, Siena College.

Role in Firm: Manager

Phone: 518-456-6663

Contact: JWatroba@tbccpa.com

Joined In:

2018

Education:

- Bachelor of Science in Accounting, Siena College
- Master of Science in Accounting, Siena College

Credentials

Professional Affiliations

Community Involvement

- Play It Foreward 518 - President/Co-Founder
- Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Albany - Board Member

Just for Fun

In his free time Joe enjoys spending time with his family which includes his wife Michaela and their beautiful daughter Carmella. Joe is a big golfer and hits the links any chance he can.
