

KENNETH (K.C.) WEAVER, JD

K.C. partners with investment advisors to help employers with the design, implementation, and compliant administration of their retirement plan programs. Prior to joining the firm, K.C. worked for a decade as an ERISA attorney at a national law firm and was mentored by one of the nation's preeminent pension plan and executive/equity-based compensation attorneys. Before that, he was a prosecutor at the Albany County District Attorney's Office. Before becoming an attorney, K.C. was a middle school teacher of English and History.
